MARCHING FOR ULSTER

"ULSTER SAYS NO - STAND BY ULSTER" was the chant from more than 200 National Front marchers as they made their way through the Surrey town of Guildford on Saturday 27th September.

A motley rag-bag of a demonstration by the Labour and Socialist Workers parties could only muster a hundred and their well publicised boast that they would 'Smash the NF off the streets' turned out to be just another empty threat.

It was the first march on the Mainland against the Anglo-Irish Agreement, and it showed the people of Guildford - a town that has had first hand experience of IRA terror through the pub bombings of the early seventies - that the people of Ulster are not alone in their opposition to Thatcher's Hillsborough Accord.

LOYAL ULSTERMEN

A minutes silence was held at the rally after the march. As a bugler played the Last Post the marchers were asked to think about the loyal Ulstermen who had given their lives for Britain. The 5,000 Ulster Volunteers who died on July 1st 1916 at the Battle of the Somme. The loyal Ulstermen who had fought for Britain during the Second World War and the Falklands War. The marchers were also asked to remember the victims of the IRA both in Ulster and on the Mainland.

OWED A DEBT

The speakers at the rally all denounced the Thatcher Government for their betrayal of Ulster. Joe Pearce, just back from a speaking tour of National Front branches, said that Britain and the British people owed a debt to Ulster for the loyalty its people had showed to Britain over the years.

Ian Anderson said that the Anglo-Irish Agreement could be defeated, but only by co-operation between the National Front and its supporters on the Mainland working together with the people of Ulster to expose Thatcher's betrayal.

Chairman of the National Front from 1981 to 84, Andrew Brons, said it was the duty of the National Front to wake the British people out of their lethargy. IRA supporters had worked their way into the highest levels of British political life and were working all out to promote the takeover of Ulster by the Republic.

He told the rally,

'It appears that, at present, the National Front, and the National Front alone, is prepared to take to the streets to expose the treachery and betrayal of the Anglo-Irish Agreement'.

Leaflets were given out along the route of the march and after the rally a number of local people came forward asking about NF policies and activity in the Guildford area.

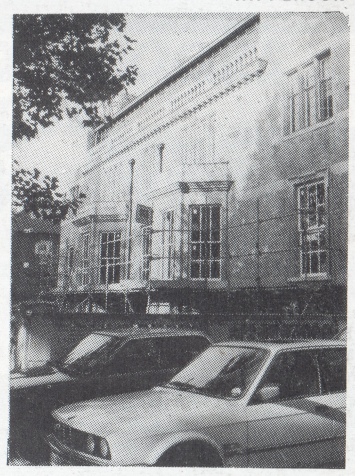
Police Face Drugs Probe



Notting Hill Police Station

by Joe Pearce

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION has been leaked to THE FLAG about a major drugs cover-up at Notting Hill police station in West London.

Although, for obvious reasons, we cannot disclose our source, it is clear from information received that a number of police officers at Notting Hill are users of cannabis.

The cover-up arose following the discovery of a cubic inch of cannabis resin by a building worker employed by Gordon North Builders who was doing renovation work at the police station during the summer. He discovered the cannabis behind a dartboard and immediately showed it to the station sergeant on duty.

DRINKS

The duty officer, after asking the workman where he'd found the cache of cannabis, took him to the Chief Superintendant's office. In turn, the Chief Superintendant appeared both shocked and alarmed by the workman's discovery.

He plied him with drinks and requested that the matter go no further than the four walls of his office.

He then ordered that two sniffer dogs be brought in to search the whole station for any more illicit drugs supplies.

The dogs, a labrador and a spaniel, discovered further supplies of cannabis in three private lockers belonging to police officers stationed at Notting Hills.

The Chief Superintendant ordered that the lockers be prized open because they were locked and it was then that the drugs were discovered and seized.

The Chief Superintendant asked the sergeant whether the officers in question were on duty. On being told that they weren't he ordered that they be dragged in immediately regardless of what they were doing.

QUIET

Finally, the workman was again told to keep the whole affair quiet and, needless to say, the whole sordid incident has never seen the light of day.

Nevertheless, THE FLAG is pleased to be able to expose the use of drugs at Notting Hill police station since the British people have a right to know about corruption in the police force.

Perhaps the use of drugs at Notting Hill police station goes some way to explaining why police can look so happy while dancing with West Indians at the Notting Hill Carnival every year.

After all, if they are doped-up they'd rather be 'boogy-ing' with the revellers than catching the muggers . . .

CARNIVAL CAPERS

■ Officers from Scotland Yard's Drugs Squad raided and searched Brixton police station at the end of last month, according to BBC radio news reports. The raids came following numerous complaints from local blacks that police officers based at Brixton were reselling cannibis which they had previously seized in raids on pushers. One Brixton Bobby (un-named) was quoted in the reports as saying that the Drugs Squad itself was next in line for a raid . . .

Make the NF – Make the News

HARD-WORKING Oldham NF are really getting their fair share of publicity these days and have seldom been out of the local newspapers since their intended march was banned back in July.

The beginning of September saw a schools' campaign launched by the branch to coincide with the start of the Winter term, and this YNF recruitment drive has also made headlines with the local papers.

The next couple of months will see Oldham NF busy raising finance for the General Election where their candidate will be ex-serviceman and local branch secretary Alec Malcolm.

National Front in new bid to woo children

NATIONAL Front literature is to be handed out to Oldham youngsters.

As part of the party's recruitment drive, copies of a new monthly newspaper, called The Flag, are to be distributed to schoolchildren.

The editor of the newspaper is Mr. Martin Wingfield, who recently served a six-month jail sentence for breaking the Race Relations Act.

Gap

Mr. Alex Malcolm, Oldham NF secretary, said: "The Flag is being produced to fill a gap in our literature stable and will be more for a recruiting purpose than for internal consumption."

The first issue is strongly pro-British and claims that massive coloured immigration threatens the fabric of British society.

The NF also plans to distribute an "anti-smear" leaflet in schools and at Oldham Athletic's football ground.

In the leaflet, it claims that the party is not responsible for violence at football grounds and accuses the media of an anti-NF bias.

National Front 'will remove US bases'

WHY the National Front opposes 'the American military occupation of Britain' was the theme of a meeting of the party's Torbay branch held in a Torquay hotel last week.

The speakers were local organiser Mr Mark Cotterill and local chairman Mr Paul Curtis.

Mr Cotterill said that a NF government would remove all US air bases here, both nuclear and conventional. All US servicemen would also have to leave the country.

In its place the NF would build an independent nuclear deterrant for Britain and also strengthen our conventional armed forces, which he said were now in a dangerous state of weakness.

Mr Curtis said that Britain must also withdraw from NATO, as this bound us to the USA against the USSR, but the facts were that the Americans were no more our friends than the Russians.

We had no quarrels with the peoples of the USA and Russia, but we completely rejected their ideology.

Mr Cotterill ended the meeting by stating that as long as the military occupation of Britain continued, the country would be in the front line of a nuclear war which would have nothing to do with ordinary Britons.

This type of report tells the public NF policy

THIS IS the type of excellent publicity the NF can get if branches regularly send out Press Statements.

This report of a local branch meeting in Torquay appeared in the Mid Devon Advertiser.

With the General Election possibly only 9 months away NF branches must start getting publicity for their candidates and NF policies.

MAKE SURE YOUR BRANCH SENDS OUT REGULAR PRESS STATEMENTS.

A MATTER OF TIME!

IT WAS always just a matter of time how long Leeds NF would allow The Pretenders like Lambeth or Medway to boast that they were at the top of THE FLAG sales league.

Leeds are now well clear at the top of the table with Lambeth themselves well clear in second place. Newham and Wandsworth look firmly established in third and fourth while Torbay jump from 9th to 6th.

Well done to Coleraine who enter the league at 7th and also to Richmond who are improving up the table. Brighton's drop from 10th to 19th is an abysmal performance.

These figures are up to and including orders for the week-ending 4th Oct.

Expert Study predicts:

'OVER THREE MILLION JOBLESS FOR NEXT TEN YEARS'

by Ian Anderson

A NEW report issued by the Cambridge Econometrics Forecasting Unit predicts absolutely no hope for Britain's army of unemployed for at least ten years and even then they predict only a very small improvement. This is effectively saying to school-leavers in some areas: "You will NEVER work".

The Cambridge Econometrics group has a remarkable record of accuracy in its economic forecasting — far better than most government forecasts, which makes this report even more gloomy than its predictions.

They confirm the fears expressed by the National Front over the last few years that British manufacturing industry is declining at an unprecedented rate and that the decline in manufacturing industry will cause the loss of thousands more jobs over the next decade or so.

IMPORTS

The report also says that the level of manufactured imports will continue to rise from the 21% in 1979 when Margaret Thatcher came to power to 42% by the year 2000. This makes nonsense of her policies of free trade and tax cuts.

The relatively wealthy people who benefit from tax cuts simply spend their extra money on imported Japanese videos, German cars, French clothes or Italian fridges.

When this is combined with the inevitable slowdown in the production of North Sea Oil, the result becomes horrific: the complete destruction of the industrial fabric of Britain, the loss of thousands of jobs and the desolation of whole communities.

Back to the Depression: No hope for Britain's jobless.

MADE IN HONG KONG

Margaret Thatcher loves to wave the Union Jack and pose as a modern day Boadicea, but in reality her Union Jack is made in Hong Kong, her chariot in Japan and the only thing she is capable of defeating is the pride and integrity of the British people — she is no Boadicea, just a modern day Gorgon.

NURSING CRISIS

by Julie Connor

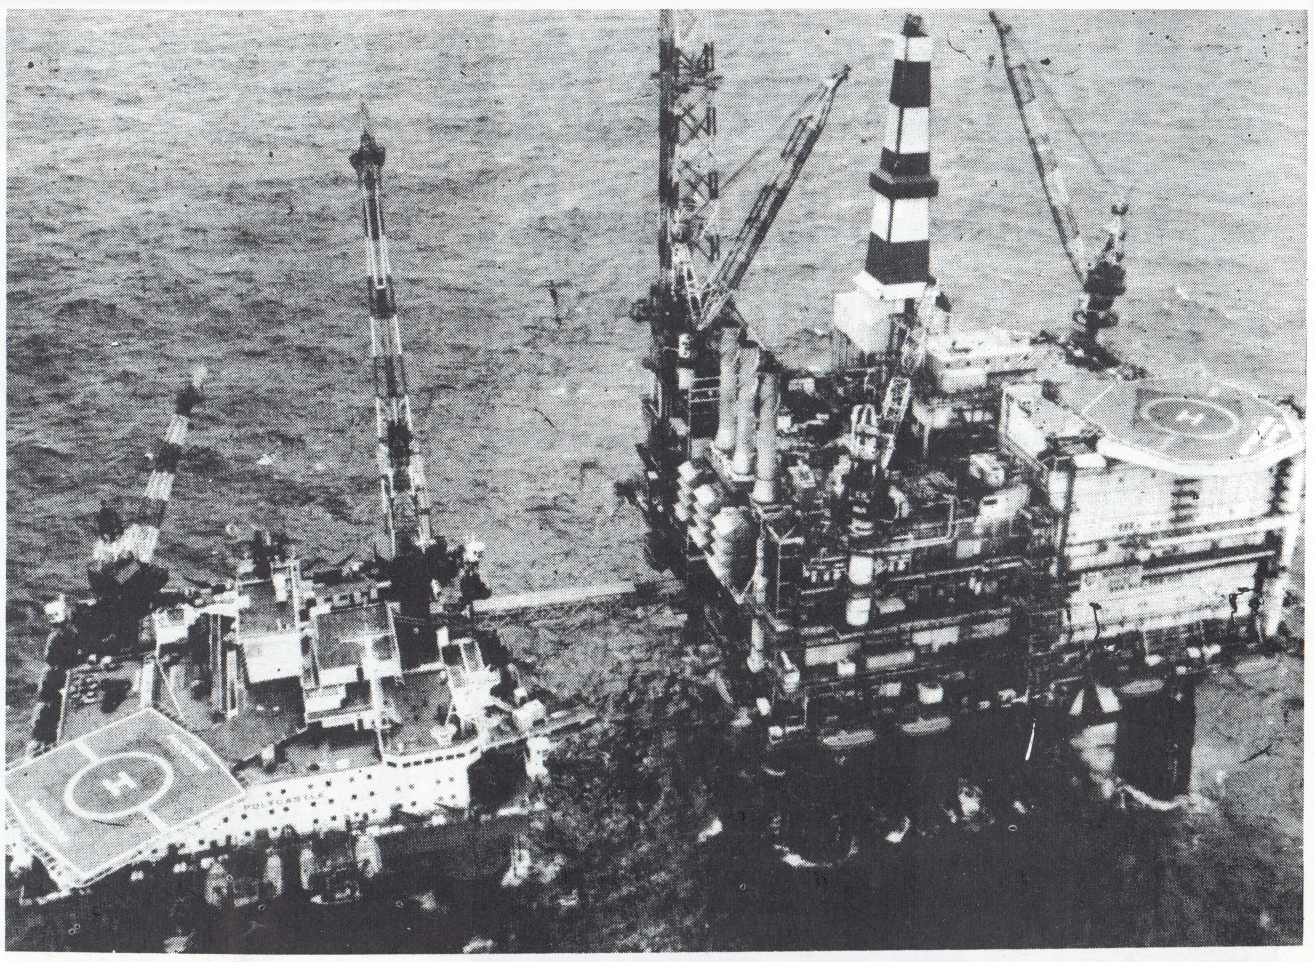
PRIDE WAS the word most people once had for our Health Service. The decline of that great Health Service to the decaying shambles we have today is a national tragedy.

According to the Royal College of Nursing thousands of nurses are leaving the Health Service because they are disillusioned, demoralised and burnt out.

More than a third of all student nurses drop out of nursing before or just after they qualify. Of the 80,000 students now in training only 25,000 are expected to join the professional register.

Every year hundreds of nurses are being attracted abroad where better pay and conditions are being offered. The majority of these nurses are going to the U.S.A. while British hospitals are steadily becoming dependent on nurses and doctors from the Third World, mostly India and Pakistan.

With inadequate nursing, overcrowded wards and foreign nurses that are poorly trained, our once great health service is slowly dying.



PLUNDERING OUR NATIONAL ASSETS

by Martin Wingfield

OVER THE LAST few weeks the screens of our televisions have been full of advertisements praising the achievements of British Gas.

There is every reason why British Gas should be praised to such an extent. In 1949 when it was nationalised the gas industry was a shambles of under-investment, primitive technology, dirt and danger.

It was rescued for the nation by public ownership and made fit for modern needs by the planning and the economics that made that possible.

In 1984/85 the profit for British Gas was £803 million, of £504 million was paid to the government through the gas levy.

During the last 20 years, the industry has been rebuilt creating a national gas transmission system to supply gas, safely and securely, to 16 million homes.

Now it is a high-employment, high investment, high technology, high efficiency industry, responsive to national and industrial needs, sensitive to consumer and community interests.

SELL IT OFF

But British Gas is not being praised on our televisions because the government wants the British people to be proud of its achievements. It is being praised because the British Government wants to sell it off

They want to sell a major national asset, at a cut-down price, to financial and multinational insitutions so that they can make enough money to give voters a token tax cut before the next General Election.

The government are trying to kid the public that it is the ordinary man in the street that will buy British Gas shares, just like the man in the street was meant to have bought British Telecom shares.

ABUSE

In reality the only people to benefit from the sale of British Telecom were the banks and the sharks in the City. Despite all the incentives — like supposedly cheaper phone bills — the total small shareholding in British Telecom is less than 1.4% of the equity.

With 98.6% of B.T. shares in the hands of the bankers and City slickers, this was bound to lead to abuse, and that is exactly what happened.

Last year, two weeks after announcing profits of £443 million, an increase of 39%, the newly-privatised British Telecom put up their prices!

Yet the Chairman of B.T., Sir George Jefferson, who in the last full year before privatisation was earning £67,000, is now reported to be earning £167,000. Not a bad pay rise!

PLUNDERING

The selling off of British Gas is an act verging on treason. It is the plundering of a national asset for the sole purpose of a one-off tax cut in an attempt to win the next election.

Government propaganda claims that the privatisation programme gives a share in British industry to the British people. In practice, the privatisation programme has concentrated further the ownership of the wealth of the country into the hands of the chosen few.

The sell-off of British Gas is the disposal of a legacy that we should be handing down to future generations. The disposal of a legacy into the hands of bankers whose only concern is profit for themselves.

KEEP FLYING THE FLAG IN ULSTER

THE UNION JACK is to be banned on certain occasions in Ulster as part of Margaret Thatcher's betrayal of the loyal British people in that part of the United Kingdom.

Ulster Loyalists are understandably enraged by this government plan to introduce legislation to allow the police to remove the Union Jack if they believe it "endangers public order".

Thus Thatcher's government is banning the flying of the Union Jack in a part of the United Kingdom in their latest efforts to sell Ulster out to the government of the Irish Republic in Dublin.

The National Front will support all efforts to resist this betrayal of loyal Ulster.

Ulster is forever British and the Union Jack is the British flag. It must be kept flying all over Northern Ireland!

IMPORTS FLOOD INTO BRITAIN

CHEAP SHIRTS, dresses and knitwear from Taiwan are flooding into Britain and putting British workers in the textile trade on the dole.

From being £22 million in 1979 imports from Taiwan have rocketed to £60 million in 1985.

Alec Smith, General Secretary of the 80,000 strong National Union of Tailors and Garment Workers urged Trade Minster, Alan Clark, to take action to curb the flood of Taiwan imports which were being sold in Britain for half the price they were being sold in Taiwan itself.

The National Front says 'Ban foreign manufactured imports' and believes that all goods bought in Britain should be made in Britain, in British factories by British workers.

PUTTING BRITISH WORKERS ON THE DOLE

MERIDIAN, the Nottingham based knitwear company has announced 245 redundancies in their factories in Mansfield and Nottingham.

Mr. Barry Lockwood, personnel diector of the company put the job losses down to unfair competition from cheap foreign imports.

SAVE OUR CAR INDUSTRY

by Ian Anderson

BRITAIN'S MOTOR INDUSTRY is being systematically murdered, our own factories are being flogged off to foreigners, imports are flooding in, design work is being carried out abroad instead of in Britain as a result of "link ups" with foreign manufacturers.

What does Maggie Thatcher do about this? She promotes Japanese car firms!

The National Front's programme for a nationalist economy is a radical and revolutionary change from anything tried by either capitalism of communism.

WE DEMAND:

- ★ A BAN ON ALL FOREIGN IMPORTS OF MANUFACTURED ITEMS
- ★ ALL FOREIGN OWNED FIRMS SHOULD BE OWNED DIRECTLY BY BRITISH WORKERS.
- ★ ALL MANUFACTURING COMPANIES MUST BE TURNED INTO WORKERS' CO-OPERATIVES
- ★ ALL CAR COMPONENTS MUST BE MADE IN BRITAIN.
- ★ ALL CAR DESIGN WORK MUST BE CARRIED OUT IN BRITAIN.
- ★ LARGE CAR AND TRUCK FIRMS SHOULD BE SPLIT INTO SMALLER UNITS WHEREVER POSSIBLE.
- ★ THE ASSEMBLY LINE SYSTEM OF OPERATION SHOULD BE DISCOURAGED IN FAVOUR OF THE TEAM BUILDING SYSTEM.

GENERAL MOTORS

● Grim news is announced to the Bedford workers.

ON TUESDAY September 9th the Bedford truck company announced it was making 1,450 people redundant. Bedford Trucks is owned by the world's biggest company, General Motors whose decisions are not made in Luton or even in London — they are made in Detroit.

The American bosses saw a £50 million loss and just decided to cut its production and sack the workers — why should they care about the workers of Luton or anywhere else in Britain?

The main reason for the losses being made by all firms producing trucks in Britain is the rapidly increasing quantity of imports flooding into the country.

OUR SOLUTION: TURN THE BEDFORD TRUCK COMPANY INTO A WORKERS' CO-OPERATIVE WHOLLY OWNED BY THE WORKFORCE, HALT ALL FOREIGN IMPORTS OF TRUCKS. THE WORKERS WOULD THEN BE DIRECTLY RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SUCCESS OF THEIR COMPANY WHICH WOULD THEN OPERATE IN BRITAIN COMPETING ONLY WITH OTHER BRITISH WORKERS.

BRITISH LEYLAND

NOW CALLED 'BL' and divided up into a number of different divisions, such as Austin Rover, land Rover, Leyland Trucks, etc.

Austin Rover recently launched its prestige 800 series car to compete with Mercedes, Volvo, etc. But only a few thousand of these are to be produced each year. Meanwhile there is continued speculation, fuelled by occasional Ministerial 'leaks', that Land Rover is to be sold off to General Motors — or any other American company that is interested.

OUR SOLUTION: CONTINUE THE SUCCESSFUL DIVISION OF BL INTO SMALLER UNITS. TURN EACH UNIT INTO A WORKERS' CO-OPERATIVE WHOLLY OWNED BY THE WORKFORCE. IMPOSE AN IMMEDIATE LARGE PENAL IMPORT DUTY ON FOREIGN CARS UNTIL THE UNITS CAN STEP UP THEIR PRODUCTION — THEN BAN FOREIGN IMPORTS.

LOTUS

THIS SPECIALIST car company was built up through the genius of Colin Chapman, British designers and engineers and the craftsmen who built the cars. It has now been sold to General Motors who want to move the firm from its Hethel factory in Norfolk.

In line with General Motors 'caring attitude' the bosses in Detroit have decided that they are effectively going to ditch the entire workforce in Norfolk.

They started off their search for new premises by contacting the Dutch government about what grants were available. However, these negotiations appear to have broken down so now they are looking for somwhere else: France, Germany . . .Zimbabwe? Perhaps Robert Mugabe would offer a large grant for a new factory.

OUR SOLUTION: TAKE LOTUS BACK OFF GENERAL MOTORS, HAND IT OVER TO THE WORKFORCE, GIVE THE COMPANY A GRANT TO EXPAND THEIR PRESENT FACTORY AND KEEP ALL THEIR CURRENT WORKERS. NEW WORKERS TO EXPAND THE FIRM SHOULD BE RECRUITED LOCALLY.

JAGUAR

PRIDE OF BRITAIN'S motor industry — or at least that is what Jaguar should be. The reliability of their cars has improved dramatically in recent years, their design and engineering expertise is amongst the world's best, their cars, in short, are beautiful.

So why shouldn't we be proud of the workforce including the management; proud of a great British achievement? We should — except Jaguar is now 40% owned by Americans and that percentage has been steadily increasing.

It is likely to be only a matter of time before Jaguar cars are build 'under licence' in America — and eventually that the whole business is transferred across the Atlantic and where will that leave Jaguar workers?

OUR SOLUTION: AS AN INTERIM MEASURE THE CAR UNIONS SHOULD BUY SHARES IN JAGUAR TO GAIN MAJORITY CONTROL. THEY SHOULD SELL THE SHARES TO THE WORKERS AND THE FIRM COULD THEN BE TURNED INTO A WORKERS' CO-OPERATIVE — OWNED AND RUN BY THE WORKFORCE — WITH NO DANGER OF THE COMPANY BEING MOVED LOCK, STOCK AND BARREL TO AMERICA OR ANYWHERE ELSE.

NISSAN

● Scrap the robots - Bring back workers pride in building cars.

PRIME Minister Thatcher opened the new Nissan assembly plant in Tyne & Wear on 9th September. Within five years it will be assembling 100,000 vehicles a year — but it is only an assembly plant — the cars will be largely designed in Japan, the majority of parts are to be imported.

Up to now there has been a voluntary limit on the number of Japanese cars coming into this country — this will now effectively be scrapped and imports will expand dramatically — this will cause even more job losses amongst other British workers who are not prepared to compete with the strict regimentation, the militaristic regime and the lack of personal expression enforced in Japanese factories.

Why should they? British workers are individuals who lead their own lives — they are not worker ants unthinkingly carrying out their allotted task.

OUR SOLUTION: DEMOLISH THE MONOLITHIC ASSEMBLY LINE FACTORY WHICH ELIMINATES PRIDE IN WORK, PERSONAL EXPRESSION AND CRAFTSMANSHIP. BUILD A NEW FACTORY WHERE CARS ARE BUILT BY TEAMS OF WORKERS TAKING A CAR FROM BEGINNING TO END OF THE ASSEMBLY PROCESS AS HAS BEEN TRIED SUCCESSFULLY IN SCANDANAVIA. THEY COULD THEN PURCHASE THE COMPONENTS FOR THE CARS FROM ANYWHERE THEY LIKE — ANYWHERE IN BRITAIN, THAT IS. THIS WOULD CREATE LITERALLY THOUSANDS OF JOBS.

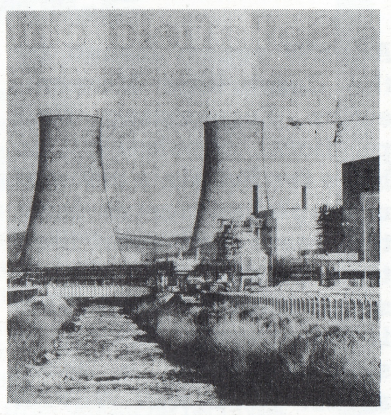
NUCLEAR DEBATE

PEOPLE LIKE FRONT POLICY



MOST PEOPLE in Britain want to see nuclear power phased out, according to a new opinion poll.

A Gallup Poll published in September shows that 56 per cent favour scrapping the nuclear power programme while only 34 per cent support it.

This latest poll demonstrates still further the similarity between the view of the British people and those of the National Front.

The NF's official policy on nuclear power states:

"We do not propose to use nuclear energy until such time as it is proved to have a satisfactory safety level. We are particularly opposed to the use of Britain as a dumping ground for the nuclear waste of other countries."

Thus, the British people and the National Front speak as one in their opposition to nuclear power.

Likewise, opinion polls have shown that the British people and the National Front speak as one with regard to both immigration and the Common Market.

Predictably, however, the British Government will continue to ignore the wishes of the people who elected them.

It's no wonder that a poll conducted by the New Statesman concluded that the British people will only get what they believe in by voting National Front.

OBITUARY

DON BENNETT

ON SEPTEMBER 14th Air Vice-Marshal Donald 'Pathfinder' Bennett CB,CBE,DSO. died in hospital at the age of 76.

Don Bennett, as well as being the RAF's youngest Air Vice-Marshall, a legendary airman of World War II and an outstanding figure in British civil and military aviation, was also a great friend of the National Front.

He steadfastly refused to be bullied by the media into distancing himself from the National Front, announcing, 'The National Front are British, and perfectly respectable'.

Don Bennett supported the NF's annual Remembrance Day parade to the Cenotaph and even in his later years continued to be a committed campaigner against coloured immigration.

'Getting away with MURDER!'

'Crime of Passion' has always been the mitigating circumstance for murderers or attackers getting lighter sentences or even found not guilty.

THE FLAG* looks at the new mitigating circumstance that appears to be accepted in Britain's courts as an excuse for violence or murder . . . 'Subjected to Racial Abuse'.

West Indian walks free

A JUDGE DRAMATICALLY halted an Old Bailey trial after it was revealed that the accused had been subjected to racial abuse before he had stabbed his victim to death.

Amazed passengers on a packed Underground train watched as West Indian, Philip Cook stabbed Lynn Summers, who was white, through the heart with a penknife after suffering a tirade of racial abuse.

Summers, of Talgarth Road, West Kensington, had been drinking heavily and had yelled racial taunts at black people on the platform. The fight broke out on the train when Summers again shouted racial abuse.

Mr. Justice Boreham said the defendant had clearly acted in self-defence.

Asian youths acquitted

FOUR MEMBERS of an Asian gang walked from Manchester Crown Court after being acquitted on charges of causing grevious bodily harm with intent.

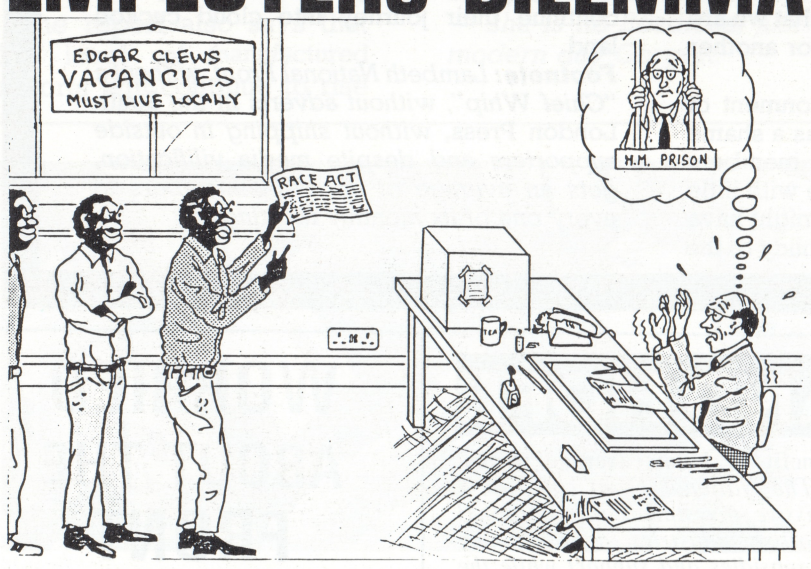
The charges had arisen out of an horrific racial attack in a Manchester college which left two white students battered and bleeding.

More than 40 Asian youths arrived at Fielden Park College, Didsbury, armed with iron bars, chairlegs, clubs, a rice flail and knives.

They hunted down Trevor Jones (18) and sixteen year old Stephen Miller, cornered them in a gym and clubbed them to the ground in front of a horrified P.E. teacher, before raining blows on them for a full minute, beating them unconscious.

The course of the trial changed when it was revealed that one of the Asians, Asif Wahid, had been subjected to racial abuse from the two white youngsters.

EMPLOYERS' DILEMMA



by Jimmy Grundle

AN ENGINEERING firm called Edgar Clews in Coventry has founditself accused of racism.

In an advertisement for a typist-telephonist, the firm which makes nuts and bolts, included those terrible words of White Supremacy: 'Must live locally'.

Mr. Graham Williamson, a director of the company, said that the local address condition was made to assist punctuality as it was no use employees turning up late because of problems with buses. But the Commission for Racial Equality claimed that the firm was being unfair to Blacks and Asians because few live near the factory in The Hill, Coventry.

A letter from the Commission said, 'This advertisement makes clear that residence in a specific geographical area is a requirement of your firm. This seems to be indirectly discriminatory because comparatively few Blacks live in the area concerned, and unless there is a good reason for it, it may be against the law'.

No doubt people from Soweto or Delhi can expect to see adverts from Edgar Clews in their Job Centres next time there is a vacancy thanks to all the nuts at the C.R.E.

Improving the paper

WELL DONE on two excellent issues of THE FLAG. The paper has had a very good reception from both veteran Nationalists and newcomers alike.

I can't find anything in the two issue to criticise (which is unusual for me) but I can think of ways of improving the paper in my view. i) I would like to see a current affairs column similar to the one in the SUNDAY PEOPLE called Straight Talk by John Smith. ii) Why not try some investigative journalism? THE FLAG could compile a special report on Britain's Black Ghettos by contacting Leeds Branch for information on Chapeltown, Manchester branch on Mosside, Liverpool Branch on Toxteth etc. iii) I particularly like the sports page but lets not have every article referring to race or the NF. Let's have tributes to British sportsmen, especially Nigel Mansell and the four Britons who won gold medals in Stuttgart, Roger Black (400m), Seb Coe (800m), Steve Cramm (1,500) and Jack Buckner (5,000m) proving that Britain dominated the men's track events.

Stephen Crabtree,
BATLEY.

Unnecessary sexism

CONGRATULATIONS on issues one and two of THE FLAG. Activists have been waiting for a paper they can sell to the public without feeling embarrassed as to the contents.

Only one complaint - the sexist remarks on page 5 of issue No.2 which reminded me of THE SUN. Surely we can't afford to alienate any members from our cause through unnecessary remarks.

Roger Bower,
NORWICH.

Convincing

I WAS pleased to read the first issue of THE FLAG has sold out; it goes to show what an excellent paper it really is. The layout makes it very readable and appealing to the man in the street. Why try to convince the converted? THE FLAG does a good job to convince the unconverted.

J.Taits,
LONDON NW4.

Special Branch

I RECENTLY read a copy of THE FLAG and was very impressed. It's a good quality newspaper and interesting to both our members and the general public.

Last week I had a visit from Special Branch. They wanted to know all about what was going on within the NF. They particularly wanted information about Birmingham NF.

I've told my local organiser, but I thought your readers would like to know.

N.B.

Wrong about Bruno

AS A fight fan, may I say that I think you exaggerate in your article on Frank Bruno.

Most of his opponents were, I admit, pretty lousy - but 'none remotely up to the top flight'. What about former, and not too distant, world champion Gerrie Coetze, who I watched him demolish in half a round!

The Ted Budden Column

BAN ON EXPORT OF AFRICAN TECHNOLOGY

I DON'T SUPPOSE the average person knows what a 'non-aligned nation' is. Probably most think that non-alignment is something to do with car headlights.

However,there was recently held a conference of 'non-aligned nations' hosted by our old friend Dr.Mugabe of Zimbabwe. Non-aligned, it must be stressed, does not mean that the delegates were cross-eyed - since they were all one eyed anyway, that would be a physical impossibility.

The term, in fact, refers to their claim to be totally independent of world power blocs. Cuba, for instance, which is non-aligned to Moscow. Colonel Gaddafi, who really should be aligned - along the length of a psychiatrist's couch. India and all the African states who are totally independent - apart, that is, from regular remittances of the largesse of Western tax-payers.

SECOND BITE

These and many others of the world's leading pan-handlers meet regularly to discuss the world's problems and issue resounding communiques; invariably anti-Western and anti-White; biting the hand that feeds them in the certain knowledge that the limp-wristed Western 'liberal' hand is always good for a second bite.

This latest meeting of great minds was no exception, save that the denunciations of Europeans were even fruitier than usual, due to the 'problem' of South Africa. They all agreed to impose economic sanctions on the White South African fiends and, just in case that did not occasion nightmares in Pretoria, announced a total ban on the export of technology.

What can this mean? No bionic bananas for South Africa? Being denied the technology of African mud-hut construction? No access to the latest developments in telecommunication tomtoms?

But wait a bit. You may remember that some years ago there was a Ugandan Space Agency. They had a space programme which involved stuffing fat market mammies into oil drums and rolling them down a steep slope to give them experience of weightlessness or more likely, lifelessness. No results of this scientific programme have ever been published nor, for that matter, any casualty list.

Can it be that the Ugandans have at last got it all together and are about to launch a Star Wars offensive against South Africa? Mammies from outer space?

I can see them pursing their lips in Pretoria. Boers always do that when they smile!

ONE EYED JACKS

THE RECENT nerks outing, otherwise known as the TUC Conference, debated South Africa during this year's booze-up at Brighton. A motion was passed to put British workers on the dole by banning all trade with that bastion of total evil; not by a small majority nor yet a large one, but unanimously brothers; not a single dissenting voice. Well I suppose that anyone who will give Neil Kinnock a standing ovation is capable of almost any lunacy.

LESS INTELLIGENT

Still it is a trifle disquieting that trade unions should be the only organisations in which the leaders are infinitely less intelligent than the members.

Take the example of my own union. A recent AEU Journal was devoted almost entirely to a hate piece about South Africa composed of lies, half-truths and terrorist propaganda; this coupled with a statement that we accepted that we would lose jobs by making a stand on this great 'moral issue'.

Most of the rest of the issue was devoted to a demand for racial justice in British industry which advocated 'positive discrimination' in favour of Black settlers.

A large measure of unemployment is a fact of life for the foreseeable future and nowhere is this more evident than in the engineering industry, which has lost a third of its workforce in the last ten years. Every man on the shop floor knows this and knows full well that, in an era of job scarcity, jobs for Black settlers means no jobs for young Britons.

SIMPLE EQUATION

Yet it seems, the leaders of an engineering union are too obtuse to comprehend this simple equation.

Or is it that they seek to curry favour with Black settlers merely to aid the Labour Party's bid for the Black bloc vote and effectively disenfranchise the British in their own country?

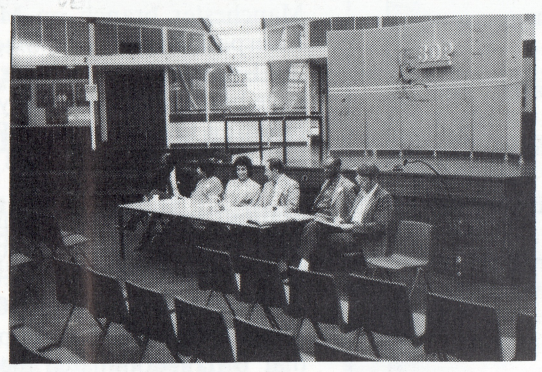
So are they just stupid or are they treacherous? It is, of course, possible to be both!

Cloud Cuckoo Land

For the 24 who turned up to the SDP Conference on Race

by Ian Anderson

AFTER REGISTRATION for the SDP conference on "Racial Justice" we were asked which of seven workshop sessions we wanted to join: everything from "Education and Race" to the "Police and Race" — only "Knitting and Race" was missing. The four members of the Ind. NF Observers Group registered for "Race Relations and Civil Rights" and we were given little blue sticky labels to wear.



Quite a few chiefs . . .

We were then ushered into the main hall of the Geoffrey Chaucer School, near Elephant and Castle, South London. It is, of course, merely a coincidence that the headmaster (who was also one of the speakers) was an Alliance local election candidate.

The main hall was clearly capable of holding between 400 and 500 people; we joined the other 24 people present — an odd assortment of ethnic dresses, rasta-coloured sweaters and open-toed sandals — the Blacks present were only marginally better.

We had turned up about 15 minutes late but clearly the 'conference' hadn't started — in fact nothing really happened for the next half an hour. Then one of the platform members announced that the meeting chairman was waiting outside because they were worried about "members of the racist National Front turning up". We all looked suitably shocked.

ABANDONMENT

After another ten minutes the Chairman appeared with an inane fixed grin on his face: "I am sorry ladies and gentlemen that we are late starting, we are still hoping for another 50 people to turn up".

He then announced the abandonment of the workshop sessions, which was a shame because apart from the four NF members there were only two other people with little blue sticky labels on — the SDP might have ended up with quite a different policy to the one usually espoused.

However, we were now to be confronted with John Cartwright, an SDP M.P. and their Chief Whip in Parliament:

"The South African crisis has dominated the political headlines for weeks now . . .At the same time we are told that events in and policies towards South Africa are not the subject of burning popular concern . . . "

"I myself have received only one letter . . . " (which he also admitted came from his local regular letter-writer from whom he receives at least one letter every week).

And then the playing for votes:

"Britain is now a multi-cultural society . . . ethnic minorities continue to suffer disadvantage and discrimination . . . the government's refusal to impose sanctions will exacerbate the tensions which have contributed to the riots and street disturbances of last summer . . . "

DANGEROUS

But perhaps his most dangerous idea concerned his intention, if an SDP government is ever elected, to appoint a Human Rights Convention to include the Commission for Racial Equality.

This would produce special programmes for ethnic minorities which would "provoke a White backlash" which would then have to be ruthlessly suppressed.

. . . but not many indians!

His other ideas included having a "Black quota" on all government bodies, more multi-cultural education, housing authorities to evict Whites who don't get on with local blacks, etc.

It sounded more like Bernie Grant than David Owen. The NF contingent walked out leaving the remaining two dozen people to continue their journey into cloud cuckoo land.

Footnote: Lambeth National Front, without a "Chief Whip", without adverts in the South London Press, without shipping in outside supporters and despite media vilification, gets an average of about 30 members to every one of its monthly meetings.

GIVE SCOTLAND HOPE

SCOTLAND IS set to become another impoverished 'Third World' country. That was the grim warning from the boss of the international aid organisation War on Want.

General Secretary, George Calloway said that 46% of Scots were now living on unemployment benefit or below average wages.

The National Front calls for a massive investment in traditional Scottish industries, a programme of subsidies and support while the industries get established and a total ban on unfair overseas competition.

STOCKPORT RALLY FINE

NATIONAL FRONT steward Eddie Wicker was fined a total of £770 by Manchester Crown Court over an incident arising out of the NF's Stockport rally last November.

The court heard how Eddie and forty other National Front members were trapped by a 300-strong mob of coloured immigrants and Labour Party supporters at Stockport Railway Station. The alleged offence took place during scuffles between the two groups.

You can help Eddie pay his fine by donating to the National Front's Nationalist Welfare Association' which helps NF members suffering hardship because of their political activities.

Please make your cheques out to the NWA and send them to P.O.Box 41, Norwich, Norfolk NR3 2AH.

WORRIED ABOUT THE FRONT

A SPOKESMAN for an anti-National Front group in Paignton, Devon, was too frightened to give his name to the Torbay Herald Express when the paper interviewed him about the growth of the NF in the West Country.

He told the paper that the group was worried about the 'Front's decision to fight the Torbay seat at the next General Election.

The group was worried that NF newspapers had been accepted in Torquay's library, and that there had been an upsurge in NF leaflet distribution in Devon.

Despite its apparent timidity the group has vowed to 'to thwart every move the National Front makes in the local political arena'.

FIRST THERE WAS Band Aid. Then there was Live Aid. Next there was Sports Aid. There seems to be no end to the number of events and charities being launched to help the people of Ethiopia and the rest of the Third World.

And Band Aid, Live Aid and Sports Aid are only the tip of the iceberg. Even before that millionaire do-gooder, Bob Geldorf, came onto the scene there were dozens of charities geared to helping the 'underprivileged' in the Third World.

Save the Children is far more concerned with underprivileged children in Africa than it is with poor children in Britain.

Help the Aged diverts much of its money to the aged of India rather than the pensioners of Britain.

So it goes on.

However, while the National Front doesn't seek to deny the suffering in Ethiopia and elsewhere in Africa, we do believe that these charities have got their priorities wrong.

The NF believes strongly that charity begins at home. Thousands of British youngsters are poverty-stricken. Thousands of British pensioners who saw this country through the Second World War are poverty-stricken and lonely, forgotten by their families.

Many more freeze in their homes because they can't afford the heating bill. Each year pensioners perish from hypothermia.

Yet millions of pounds which could have saved lives in Britain are sent abroad . . .

For this reason, the National Front is launching Front Aid — a charity which will give every penny it raises to the needy in Britain.

All readers of THE FLAG should try to help Front Aid help Britain's poor. Dig deep for Front Aid and remember that charity begins at home FRONT AID is organised by the National Front Christian Fellowship. All donations will be acknowledged and each month whatever raised will be donated to a chosen charity.

I have grown past hate and bitterness,
I see the world as one,
Yet, though I can no longer hate,
My son is still my son.

All men at God's round table sit,
And all men must be fed;
But this loaf in my hand,
This loaf is my son's bread.

NF INSTANT RESPONSE CUTS SHORT IRA MARCH

by Ian Anderson

SOMETIMES National Front Instant Response Group activities really are instant!

Edinburgh NF only heard about a pro-IRA Republican march just 48 hours before it was due to take place.

Within hours a photocopied NF leaflet was being distributed in Loyalist pubs asking people to oppose the march.

On Saturday 6th September at the John Kane centre about 80 Republicans with a small flute band assembled behind an Irish tricolour.

About 200 Loyalists carrying Union Jack flags were there to oppose them!

Violent clashes took place even before the march-off and continued along the route. The police, becoming extremely worried by the growing number of Loyalists ordered the march to be cut short.

COMBINED

Once again the combined forces of National Front members and other Loyalists defeated the murderers of the IRA.

Well done Edinburgh NF — particularly Organiser Peter Shepherd and Committee member Tracy White, who were helped by local members and a Newham activist who was 'on holiday' from London.

● IRA rabble.

WIRRAL WANTS TO KNOW!

CHESHIRE & Wirral NF easily win the prize for receiving the most inquiries about the NF during September and October.

The response to the We Say What You're Thinking leaflet has been so encouraging that the group will be holding its first meeting in Birkenhead

OFFAL FOR FLAG SELLERS

MORE THAN ten pounds was collected for the sale of 40 copies of THE FLAG outside Smithfield meat market.

It was the first NF paper sale there for nearly a year and the meat porters showed their appreciation by giving the sellers a bag of offal and a chicken!

FLAG SPORT

Charlie Nicholas: A Scot, bought and sold like a commodity, now representing Arsenal.

GIVE THE LOCAL LADS A CHANCE

SOME OF Britain's best footballers are all set to quit the country, lured away by fantastic transfer fees from Continental clubs. British clubs are being offered up to £3 million for the cream of our players: Ian Rush, Mark Hughes, Gordon Strachan and Frank McAvennie.

ITALIAN CLUBS

Because Britain is now a member of the Common Market there is nothing, according to Common Market law, that can be done to stop this exodus. Italian clubs are already sending their representatives to this country to start negotiations.

Yet this is just the logical conclusion to Britain's transfer market whereby players are treated like any other commodity, there to be bought and sold. Two of the players mentioned above are Scots, yet they play for English clubs — why? Because they have been bought with hard cash.

This makes a nonsense of the claim by Sports Minister , Dick Tracey, that he is worried by this possible flood of emigration by our footballers; he knows that Thatcher's economic policies treat people as slaves — there to be bought and sold to the highest bidder.

Only the NF says football clubs should draw their players from their local areas — stop this transfer madness.

OWNING A SHARE IN YOUR SPORTS CLUB

BRITAIN'S SPORTS facilities are a national disgrace. Our best known national stadium, Wembley, looks more like a decaying vacant car park than the prestige sporting venue our people deserve.

The major sporting stadiums have never woken up to the fact that we are in the 1980's — they still act as if we were in the 1930's.

As an example, take England's Rugby Union headquarters at Twickenham. Tens of thousands watch rugby there live, millions watch it on television — yet after 76 years there the Rugby Football Union still hasn't installed under-soil heating which would cost just £60,000. This is hardly a great sum when just one match, the England -v- Ireland game, is sponsored to the tune of £133,000.

Wembly: A decaying car park.

FORESIGHT

Football is no better off. At the beginning of March, Andy Rogers of Reading was close to death after hitting the ground at the Vetch Field, Swansea. A few clubs such as Everton, Manchester City and Oldham Athletic have had enough foresight to install under-soil heating, but they are a tiny minority.

Isn't it about time that short-sighted football club owners started to think about their clubs, their local players and their fans rather than wasting ridiculous sums of money on transfer fees and wages for 5 minute prima donnas?

Britain has a great sporting heritage which is being thrown away by the people who run our sporting facilities. Only the NF says that football clubs and all other sporting facilities must be owned by the participants and the fans.

ASHES' SPIRIT?

ENGLAND'S CRICKETERS will not regain the Ashes this winter in Australia....and that's official.

In fact an England team will not even be touring Down Under, instead Mike Gatting will be captaining a team of England and West Indian cricketers, the selection of whom is totally against the spirit of the Ashes, the age old confrontation between English and Australian cricketers.

How can Wilf Slack, a West Indian, Gladstone Small, a West Indian, and Philip De Frietas, a West Indian, possibly play for England. Let's face it, it's cheating, and not even good cheating! If we are going to have foreigners playing for us let's have some good ones,

How can a West Indian represent England.

Viv Richards, Kapil Dev, Sarsfras Nazwar, Martin Crow, Holding Garner and Lilley.

The saying goes Cheats don't prosper if that is the case, the Ashes by right should return to the Aussies.

HORSES TO FOLLOW

JOSH GIFFORD'S Wily Yeoman, a seven year old chaser, and Pellincourt, a novice hurdler from Reg Akehurst's Epsom yard are the horses to follow for the next few weeks.

Both won impressively at Cheltenham and with a little more give in the ground both can continue their winning ways even in better class.

SPORTS QUIZ

You are an England Cricket selector. Who do you pick-to open the batting?

Batsman A has scored over 500 runs more than batsman B.

Batsman A has scored twice as many centuries as batsman B this summer.

Batsman A has a far better average than batsman B.

ANSWER You would pick batsman B. Well that is what the England selectors have done. Batsman A is Ashley Metcalfe of Yorkshire, batsman B is West Indian Wilf Slack. Peter May and his cronies must be mad!

BE PROUD OF WHAT YOU ARE

THEY MUST have been up on their chairs at Ethnic House, the home of the Commission of Racial Equality, when the news came through from America that Jamaican Lloyd Honeyghan had become the new Welterweight champion of the world.

Their delight was nothing to do with Honeyghan's great achievement, but with the fact that tens of thousands of British fans would now be fawning over the exploits of a black boxer who they could triumphantly call British!.

Oh dear, their euphoria lasted barely 24 hours. As soon as he arrived back from the states Mr Honeyghan announced that he was leaving for the States for good to become an American.

First he's British, now he's a Yank. What a charade. In reality he's a Jamaican, something he should be very proud of.
